REQUEST TO REINSTATE AN INCORRECTLY ABANDONED APPLICATION

Sir:

A Notice of Abandonment was mailed October 1, 2003 claiming Applicant failed to respond to the Office Action mailed March 31, 2003.

A timely response was mailed to the Patent and Trademark Office on Tuesday, September 2, 2003, with a two-month extension of time (August 31 was Sunday and September 1 was Monday, Labor Day, so that the two-month extended term was on September 2, 2003).

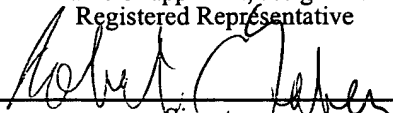

The Amendment was filed with a receipt acknowledgment postcard. A copy of that postcard is enclosed. (Unfortunately, it misidentifies the document mailed September 2, 2003 although it correctly identifies the Application Number and the attorney's file number. The check for the extension fee was cashed, but has not yet been return to us by our bank.)

Withdrawal of the Notice of Abandonment and reinstatement of the application based on Applicant's timely response with an extension is requested.

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being deposited with the United States Postal Service with sufficient postage as First Class Mail in an envelope addressed to: Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, VA 22313-1450, on October 9, 2003:
